

OLVASOTT SZÖVEG ÉRTÉSE

Task 1

News

Read the following news items [1–10] below and match them with the headings [A–L]. There are more headings than news items. Write your answers in the boxes [1–10]. There is an example [0] at the beginning.

- 0 We make them, and we break them, because some of them are very hard to keep. Here are the top ten most common broken promises...
-
- 1 Benevolent energy streamed from the cosmos into an attic room of a Victorian semi in a grey north London suburb last week. The energy passed from the spirit of Christ. Then it flowed through two ethereal 'masters' to Creme himself. Twenty of his followers; gathered in a circle around him last Friday, received the energy in turn from him.
-
- 2 A sloop, under full sail, ran aground on the western shore of Chesapeake Bay. No one was on the boat, which contains CIA papers. One week later a dead body was found in the bay. The body was identified as the sloop's owner, Peter Paisley, 60, director of the CIA's Office of Strategic Research. The CIA investigates the mystifying story of Paisley.
-
- 3 In 1989, a divorced mother of two, invented and decided to produce a special mop. They found an advertising company to find out a special symbol which would produce a successful image. After five months the family became known worldwide about their easy-to-use mop. Joy Mangano, the inventor, and her product became an overnight success.
-
- 4 Your family or your best friend? In our monthly 'test' single people who are looking for a partner ask their mum and their best friend to help. Their mother chooses one partner and their best friend chooses another.
-
- 5 A new research shows that when travelling by plane, train, or coach, there are some passengers you just don't want to have next to you. Maybe you normally like them, but sitting next to them is a different thing.
-

-
- 6 Have you ever had a holiday when you felt that the destination is perfect but, for some reason, the time wasn't right? Here is one of our readers' replies: Mary, 26, who decided to go to the Seychelles after she broke up with her boyfriend, but that wonderful place was very popular for people on their honeymoon, so couples were everywhere. She felt horrible.
-
- 7 Two British climbers were rescued yesterday after sending an SOS SMS to a friend in London.
-
- 8 Two British climbers have been killed on Mount Everest – John Smith, 30, and Peter Brown, 29, members of Black Shadow's expedition attempting the mountain by its unclimbed east-north-east ridge.
-
- 9 A new report on life in 2020 was published yesterday. This report predicts big changes in the way we live, in family life, and in work and study. Woman the breadwinner and man the househusband? Let's see, these are some of the predictions for work and family life...
-
- 10 Do you have a rude and moody teenage child living in your house? Always arguing? Children treating the house like a hotel and not helping? An Italian couple Mr and Mrs Castiglione invented the solution.
-

HEADINGS

- A Britons killed on Everest
- B Mountain climbers rescued by text message
- C Problems with your teenage children
- D Single Mum's invention
- E Why not throw your teenage children out?
- F Who knows you better?
- G Heavenly energy
- H Promises, promises
- I Not next to me
- J The puzzling boat case
- K Woman the hunter, man the housefather
- L Right place, wrong time

Write your answers here.

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
H										