

LISTENING

Listen to the radio programme about a music festival called Glastonbury and choose the correct options in the sentences.

Glastonbury is now the most expensive / biggest festival in the world.

It happens each year in June / September.

Nearly 20,000 / 200,000 people go to the festival.

The festival site is a camp site / farm for most of the year.

It costs £1 / £5 / £240 to go to the festival.

People usually stay in a tent / hotel / holiday cottage at the festival.

Adam is a musician / an organiser at the festival.

It happens each year in summer / autumn.

The festival now is smaller / bigger than in 1970.

The bands play in a stadium / a field.

The festival these days is cheaper than / more expensive than / the same price as in 1970.

Most people at the festival pay nothing / a lot / £240 for a place to sleep at the festival.