

Nirvana –The man who sold the world

alone control friend hand hills land stair stare surprise

We passed upon the _____

We spoke of was and when

Although I wasn't there

He said I was his _____

Which came as a _____

I spoke into his eyes

I thought you died _____

A long long time ago

Oh no, not me

We never lost _____

You're face to face

With the man who sold the world

I laughed and shook _____

And made my way back home

I searched for form and _____

For years and years I roamed

I gazed a gazeless _____

We walked a million _____

I must have died alone

A long, long time ago

Who knows?

Not me

I never

Who knows....

"The Man Who Sold the World" is a song written by English singer-songwriter David Bowie. The title track of Bowie's third studio album of the same name, it was released in November 1970 in the US and in April 1971 in the UK by Mercury Records. The song has been covered by dozens of musicians, amongst them the American rock band Nirvana in 1993, whose performance of the song for the television programme MTV Unplugged introduced it to a new audience. Many critics have noted that cover versions of the track have managed to outshine Bowie's original recording in popularity, with some, including Bowie himself, also noting that many listeners don't know Bowie wrote it.
