VOCABULARY

1) Read the dialogue and choose the best option.

Vivian: I bought tickets to Paris. We are travelling next month.

Xavier: Great news! There are so many things we can do there. I'd love to see the Notre Dame [1] and buy trendy clothes in the [2]

Vivian: That sounds lovely. I'd like to [3] a boat and sail on the Seine river. I will call Jackson and tell him the news tonight. Do you think he will be [4] ?

Xavier: Of course. His grandparents [5] there, so it's a special city for him. He is so [6] that he will prepare his luggage immediately.

Vivian: You are right. What are you going to do with your job?

Xavier: My boss is super [7] so this trip won't be a problem. What about you?

Vivian: For me it's the opposite. I feel [8] of telling my superior. She wants to [9] next month so everything is a mess.

Xavier: Oh, don't worry. Maybe you can take her to a nice restaurant for lunch and tell her about this trip. I'm sure she will understand. You said she is a very [10] person.

Vivian: Thank you. I might do that.
