

Talking about criminals

The Judge, Mr Newell, said that Hickey was a 1._____ who had 2._____ 12 serious 3._____. He ordered that Hickey should 4._____ of at least 15 years in prison.

The Justice Minister said that the men were not 5._____ but were 6._____ who had committed 7._____.

The lawyer for the prosecution, Mr Arthur Larchwood, stated that Henry Banks was already a 8._____ when he was appointed chairman of the company but that nobody knew this fact. He had a 9._____ dating back to 1996.

The judge said it was 10._____ that anyone with a 11._____ should not be able to get a job where 12._____ were placed in their care. Charles Amworth, 26, had 13._____ for 14._____ ten years ago before working for the bank.

