The Tampa Incident with visual cues

Directions: Read the paragraph and the questions that follow it. Check the box in front of the correct answer.

On June 30, 1862, a small battle took place in the Tampa Bay area over a two-day period. This was early in the Civil War. A Union general sailed into Tampa Bay. Soldiers disembarked, went into town, and demanded

Tampa's surrender to the Union. A small Confederate militia group stationed in Tampa called the Osceola Rangers refused to surrender. The Union gunboat then began to open fire. The Union General warned the soldiers that they would fire again

1.	Where did this Civil War battle happen?
	a.	☐ Miami
	b.	□ Jacksonville
	c.	☐ Tampa Bay
2.	What started the battle?
	a.	☐ Union general sailed into Tampa Bay
	b.	☐ Confederates went into Union territory
	c.	☐ the Union sent a message
3.	What did the Union want?
	a.	☐ to live in Tampa
	b.	☐ demanded Tampa's surrender
	c.	$\square$ to pick oranges
4.	What group was protecting Tampa?
	a.	☐ the Union
	b.	☐ Tampa Bay Buccaneers
	c.	☐ Osceola Rangers
5.	What happened at the end of the battle?
		☐ the Osceola Rangers surrendered b.
	c.	☐ the Union soldiers stopped firing and withdrew

