

Match the sentences on the left to those on the right.

I must buy some onions and tomatoes.

We can buy them 30% cheaper.

Those jumpers are on the sale.

All the lights are out.

They have to give us a full refund.

There's a greengrocer's over there.

The book is too expensive in this shop.

We must get all our money back.

We have to call in an electrician.

Let's shop around and see if we can get it cheaper.

Choose the correct option

The necklace is a gift for my mum. Can you wrap / fit it in some nice paper?

I have just got a rise at work so I can save / afford a new car at last.

I hate waiting in a row / queue to the counter in clothes shops.

The dress is too small, but Alice has lost the receipt / bill so she cannot give it back.

My brother got into a fight and broke his opponent's nose. Now my parents are looking for a lawyer / plumber who could get my brother out of trouble.

The sweatshirt had a hole in it, so I took it back to the shop to exchange / repair it for a new one.

You can only take five different clothes into the fitting / changing room.

We can't leave the restaurant yet. We haven't paid our cash / bill.

There was a sale in the shop and we got a really good discount / refund on the furniture we bought.

I'm trying to save money on / for a new laptop.

Finish the words

A chance to buy something at a really low price is a ba_____.

You can buy bread, rolls and buns at the ba_____.

When you buy something that another person has used, you buy it se_____ -h_____.

You keep your money in a bank ac_____.

A person who helps you choose perfect glasses is an op_____.

An item which costs too much is ov_____.

A shop where you can buy flowers is a fl_____.

A line of people waiting in a shop is a qu_____.

Money in the form of coins and banknotes is called ca_____.