PART 3

After the defeat in the archery competition, Prince John and the Sheriff are angry, and they arrest a lot of people. The prisons are full of poor people who can't pay their taxes. One day the Sheriff decides to kill Friar Tuck; he thinks:

'When Robin comes to save him, my guards can capture him!'

That night Robin Hood and Little John go to the king's castle to save Friar Tuck.

At the castle Prince John, the Sheriff and the guards are sleeping.

Little John takes the keys of the prison from the Sheriff's pocket, opens the door and all the prisoners are free.

Robin Hood takes the gold in Prince John's bedroom and he gives it to the poor people.

When Prince John and the Sheriff wake up ... the prison is empty and there is no gold! Robin Hood is the winner again!

After some time, King Richard returns to the throne of England and everybody is happy.
