

Skills Revision

Firstly, it's important to be open and kind. When new neighbours move in to the house next door, visit them with your family, <sup>1</sup>shake hands and say 'Hi!' This will help them feel relaxed and very welcome. Always smile at them too and say 'Hello'. It's possible you <sup>2</sup> be good friends one day.

How to be a good neighbour

Sometimes your neighbours are old people. You don't have to invite them to your house every day, but you <sup>3</sup> be friendly. Why don't you visit them sometimes and talk for ten minutes? They'll love it, but you must remember to be polite. When they are speaking, you <sup>4</sup> interrupt. Open the door for them and offer to help with their shopping too. They will love your good manners!

Finally, keep your garden and street clean. You <sup>5</sup> drop litter and make sure you put any you see in the bin. Remember to clean <sup>6</sup> after your pet dog in your garden and in the street outside your house. Your neighbours <sup>7</sup> love your pet too!

What makes me happy

First of all, I know lots of people and I've got two best friends, so I can say I'm a happy girl. My guitar makes me really happy too. I play alone when I'm at home and I play in a band too. I'm <sup>1</sup>playing in my band at school tomorrow. I hope everyone <sup>2</sup> like our music! And of course I'm always happy when I do well <sup>3</sup> school. Finally, my family makes me happy – most of the time!

I'm sure the same things will make me happy <sup>4</sup> the future, but I don't think much about it now. My friends often ask me, 'What job will you <sup>5</sup>?' Sometimes I want to be an actor but I'm not sure. They also ask, 'Will you <sup>6</sup> a family?' I think I want a family, but I don't know when. Right now I just want me and my friends to be happy. Please <sup>7</sup> ask me any more questions because I don't know the answers. Try again next year!
