

Causative HAVE (have something done)

Meaning: Have (Object/ Thing) + Past participle= Tell someone to do something for you.

For example: I had my hair cut. (Means: Someone cut my hair for me.)

1. I had my car fixed. Meaning: _____
2. I had my body tattooed. Meaning: _____
3. I had my ears pierced. Meaning: _____
4. I had my beard shaved. Meaning: _____
5. I had my food delivered. Meaning: _____

Form: HAVE + Object + Past participle of verb

Object: the person or thing that receives action

- My hair is long. I need to have my hair cut.; Object: my hair

Write the object in the sentences:

1. The king had his food cooked. _____
2. The boss had his documents printed. _____
3. My friend had his phone battery changed. _____
4. The hotel guest had the breakfast brought to their room. _____
5. Thor had his magic axe forged by a giant. _____

Verb: cut; Past participle: cut

Past participle exercise

1. My fingernails are long. I need to have it _____ (cut).
2. I cannot deliver the food myself. I have it _____ (deliver).
3. The city planners do not build the buildings themselves. They it _____ (build) for them.
4. I want the doctor to check my health. I will have my health _____ (check).
5. I do not have a Class Dojo account yet. I will have it _____ (install) tomorrow.

Tense: HAVE changes with the tense.

- My car is broken. I will have it fixed. Tense: future simple
- My car was broken, but I had it fixed. Tense: past simple
- For many years, a lot of trees have been cut. Tense: present perfect

Tense Exercise: use the correct tense with 'have'.

1. Soon, I _____ the forest cleared for the mall.
2. Usually, farmers _____ crops pollinated by bees.
3. _____ you have the app installed in your phone?
4. I _____ a table at the restaurant booked for your group later.
5. I forgot to _____ pierced.