LISTEN TO THE AUDIO AND COMPLETE

Hello! Welcome to our radio programme!

Today we will talk about _____ (interesting) curiosities of animals. Are you ready to listen to them?

1. Did you know jiraffes' tongue is _____ (long) than humans'? Yes, it is, and they can clean their ears with it! Yucky! In addition, jiraffes' tongue is _____ (blue) in the world.
   Did you know the first jiraffe that came to Europe was Julio Cesar's?

2. _____ (square) poo is Wombat's. It is difficult to describe a wombat. They are similar to a koala, but wombats are _____(big) and _____(fat). Plus, wombats are _____ (friendly).

3. Let's talk about sheeps. Did you know sheeps are _____ (intelligent) than dogs or cats? They remember the face of their friends for 2 years! But dogs are _____(cute) and _____ (loyal) animals in the world. They can be waiting months and years for you!

4. Talking of bombs now, did you know rats and dolphins are _____ (good) finding bombs for humans? Rats are _____ (smart) animals finding bombs on the land. The can find one bomb in 11 minutes! And don't worry! Rats are _____ (light) than humans so if they pass over a bomb, the bomb will not explode!

5. In water, _____ (intelligent) animals are dolphins. With their sonar voice, they tell humans where the bomb is!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

EXERCISE 1:

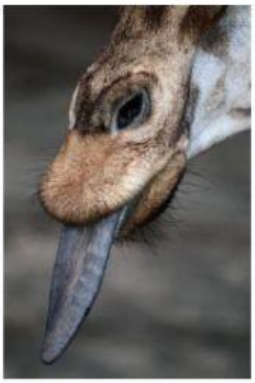

LINK the number of the paragraphs with the images.

_____ _____ _____

_____ _____

EXERCISE 2:

WRITE the name of the animal.

1. What animal is the best for finding bombs on the land? _____
2. What animal can wait for you years and month? _____
3. What animals are similar to Wombats? _____
4. What animal can clean their ears with the tongue? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS