

CAN / CAN'T

Can in the affirmative form is used to express that something is allowed.

Can't in the negative form is used to express that something is not allowed

Look at the pictures and complete with can or can't.

Studentsshout in class.

People.....drive if they are over 18 years old.

You marry without the consent of your parents if you are over 21 years.

Youdrink alcohol before driving.

Youenter this shop with pets.

Nowadays, youenter a public place without a mask.

youenter this place.

A mother to a daughter: Yougo out today!