

CAN / CAN'T

Can in the affirmative form is used to express that something is allowed.

Can't in the negative form is used to express that something is not allowed

Look at the pictures and complete with can or can't.

Students ..... shout in class.

People ..... drive if they are over 18 years old.

You ..... marry without the consent of your parents if you are over 21 years.

You ..... drink alcohol before driving.

You ..... enter this shop with pets.

Nowadays, you ..... enter a public place without a mask.

you ..... enter this place.

A mother to a daughter: You ..... go out today!