

THE BEAST

Complete the sentences with the words given.

accident	darkness	heat	rich
annoyed	dead	horror	silver
blood	disappears	howls	throat
break	drugged	injured	van
bullets	escape	kite	voice
conversation	frightening	legendary	wallet
cottage	handsome	low	werewolf

- This is a (1) _____ story about an undead creature, which can be a (2) _____ – half man, half wolf.
- Some parts of the book are retold by the (3) _____ of the beast.
- Susie Blackmore and her husband Charlie both need a (4) _____ from work. They decide to rent a remote (5) _____ for their short holidays.
- While driving along a narrow country road, Charlie notices a wild fox. The fox stops for a moment and then (6) _____ into the woods.
- When they enter the rented house, Suzy starts shivering with cold and Charlie decides to (7) _____ the cottage. Later on, they go to a local pub. There is a dirty old (8) _____ outside the pub, with an unhappy sheep inside.
- In the pub people talk about strange deaths of sheep. There are rumours of the return of the (9) _____ Beast of Brynmawr.
- There is a legend about a mysterious creature who can be an animal like a wolf or a bird like a red (10) _____.
- The Beast does its work in (11) _____. If you listen to its voice, you are sure to die. The Beast kills anything for (12) _____ and dead meat. You never know if you meet the Beast; sometimes it can become a (13)_____ man or a beautiful woman.

- Suzy overhears a (14)_____ between two men. Richard laughs talking about the mysterious creature, but Tom is serious. 'It's not a joke,' he says in a (15)_____ voice.
- One morning Suzy finds a strange 'present' in their kitchen: a (16)_____ sheep. The sheep is cut open from the (17)_____ down under the body as far as the back legs.
- While walking in the fields Suzy is terrified by wolf-like (18)_____.
- A few days later, at night, while driving to the village pub, Charlie and Susie have an (19)_____ and Charlie gets (20)_____.
- Richard offers Suzy his help and together they decide to visit Charlie in hospital. On their way to the hospital, Richard wants to stop by his place as he has forgotten his (21)_____.
- Suzy is impressed by his house and believes he is a (22)_____ man. She is worried and (23)_____ but finally agrees to drink a cup of coffee.
- Waking up later at night Suzy understands that Richard (24)_____ her. She is able to (25)_____ and luckily, Tom saves her from a (26)_____ creature, which has been following her. The farmer fires two (27)_____ (28)_____ at it. Suzy suspects that Richard and the mysterious creature are one and the same.

