Learn Grammar Prepositions of Time

In, At, and On

We can use prepositions of time with the simple present to say when we usually do things.

I practice music	in	the morning. the afternoon. the evening.
	at	night. 4:00.
	on	Monday.

Does he play music	in	the morning? the afternoon? the evening?	Yes, No,	he does. he doesn't.
	at	night? 4:00?
	on	Sunday?

We can use prepositions of time to answer open questions with When.

When do you have a music lesson? I have a music lesson on Saturday.

B Read and write in, at, or on.

Boy Do you have music ¹ _____ the morning?
