

Harriet Tubman

ABOLITIONIST & SUFFRAGETTE

1820-1913

1. Tick the correct answers:

Harriet Tubman was born as a slave but treated fairly by the overseers.

In 1860 most slaves lived in the Northern States.

Harriet found out that her owner wanted to kill her.

The only possibility to escape slavery was by fleeing to the North.

The Underground Railway was a secret network of people who helped slaves to escape.

Harriet even went to Canada to help slaves finding their way to Philadelphia.

People who were in favor of slavery were called abolitionists.

People who helped other slaves to escape were called "conductors". Harriet was one of them.

Tubman and the others escaped to freedom mainly at night, under the cover of darkness.

Harriet helped over 70 slaves to escape.

FOR THE FAST ONES

CAN YOU ALREADY IMAGINE HOW HARRIET TUBMAN'S
QUOTE GOES?

"Always remember
you have within you
the _____,
the _____ and
the _____
to reach for the stars
to change the world."