

1. You read the text about base jumper
2. What are your first impressions of the text? How easy is it to find information about the key event?
3. What title would you give the article?
4. Which of the following statements is true about the text?
 - It has several paragraphs.
 - It contains topic sentences.
 - It uses presentation devices such as pictures.
5. You should begin a paragraph when you start writing about a new:
 - Time
 - person
 - topic
6. How many paragraphs should this article be split into? Where should the new paragraph begin? Write down the reason for your choices.

