

Literary Terms Crossword Puzzle

Literary Terms Crossword Clues

Across

1. Giving human traits to non-human or inanimate objects, including animals or objects.
2. Reference to another text, an event, or place.
3. A main idea of a literary work, as conveyed in the events or characters.
4. The events in a story, usually using narrative structure.
5. The turning point or high point of a story.
6. A comparison of unlike things, using like or as.
7. The time and place where a story occurs
8. The problem of a story that the protagonist must face.
9. The character or force opposing the protagonist of a story.
10. A character who contrasts or highlights certain traits of another, usually main character of the story.
11. A device used in making a comparison between two objects.
12. Conversation between two or more characters in a story
13. Overused or worn out phrase

Down.

1. Main character of a literary work
2. Method by which the author builds a character, such as through their speech, their thoughts and behaviors, and what others say about the character.
3. Words that imitate sounds. Buzz, clunk, ring are examples.
4. Beginning of story that includes background information to get the story started.
5. The way a story is narrated; generally either first or third person.
6. The one telling a story.
7. A comparison between unlike things that does not use "like" or "as."
8. An object or item in a story that stands for something else, often an abstract concept.
9. Descriptions and descriptive words that provide a mental picture of a scene, setting, or character.
10. Feeling or atmosphere of a scene or story.
11. An image or idea repeated in a text.
12. Classification or type of literature characterized by the form, content, or style.