

and
Would reside in fancy houses
And be dressed in shoes and and trousers
In a world of own

All the
Would very extra special powers
They would and to me for hours
I'm lonely in a world of own

There'd be new
Lots of and howdy-do birds
Everyone would a dozen bluebirds
Within that world of own

I could to a babbling brook
And hear a that I could understand
I keep wishing it could that way my world would be a Wonderland
