

Grammar 2A

Present tenses

Choose the correct option to complete the text. Circle the correct answer.

(1) Are you ever wondering / Have you ever wondered where you (2) come / are coming from? I (3) am not meaning / don't mean who your mother and father are, but more about your origins and your family history. These days (4) it's / it has been relatively easy to research your family history using one of the many genealogy websites on the internet. These internet companies (5) have got / are getting more and more records every day from all sorts of places like hospitals, government departments and schools. Then these companies (6) are putting / have put all of these details onto one site. All you have to do is enter a name and any other information you (7) are having / have such as a date of birth and within minutes you (8) get / have got lots more information that (9) helps / is helping with your search. Over the last few years people (10) are discovering / have discovered all sorts of things; family secrets, long lost relatives and much more.

Vocabulary 1B

Predicative adjectives

Complete the sentences with the words in the box.
There are three extra words you do not need.

afraid	alike	alive	alone	asleep	awake
aware	glad	ill

- 1 I feel _____. I think it was something I ate.
- 2 Are your grandparents still _____?
- 3 Tom and Tim are so _____ it's almost impossible to know which one is which.
- 4 He was so tired he fell _____ almost immediately.
- 5 It's not really safe to go out _____ late at night.
- 6 She was sleeping earlier, but she should be _____ by now.