

There Is Song by Beautiful South

Fill in the gaps; order the lines and match the columns to complete each line.

_____ a bench in every park dedicated to

Those who sat _____ once but didn't make it through _____ names carved deep in bark _____ every tree

By those who spent _____ time _____ you and me

___ There's an even larger piece in every lost and found

___ Whatever your situation, whatever it may allow

___ There's a piece of history all folk carry around

___ And wherever geography may place you now

To the folks who live _____ now, makes no sense at all

And _____ every underpass, _____ every street

A promise _____ made but couldn't keep

___ That unkissed love will rear, rear its head

___ In every song you've sung in every novel read

___ A tiny piece of chalk in every coat

___ In every film the smallest lump in throat _____ song, _____ always song

Wherever _____ a right there's always wrong

There's _____ a song but a broken bond

And an unkissed frog _____ village pond

a) There is song, _____ in every village pond

b) Wherever there's _____ there's always a song perfection _____ there's a wrong

c) There's always song _____ but a broken bond

d) And an unkissed frog

There's a _____ that we graffiti'd up on a _____
