

There Is Song by Beautiful South

Fill in the gaps; order the lines and match the columns to complete each line.

_____ a bench in every park dedicated to Those who sat _____ once but didn't make it through _____ names carved deep in bark _____ every tree By those who spent _____ time _____ you and me

___ There's an even larger piece in every lost and found ___ Whatever your situation, whatever it may allow ___ There's a piece of history all folk carry around ___ And wherever geography may place you now

- a) There is song, _____ in every village pond
- b) Wherever there's _____ there's always a song perfection _____ there's a wrong
- c) There's always song _____ but a broken bond
- d) And an unkissed frog _____

There's a _____ that we graffiti'd up on a _____

To the folks who live _____ now, makes no sense at all And _____ every underpass, _____ every street
A promise _____ made but couldn't keep ___ That unkissed love will rear, rear its head
___ In every song you've sung in every novel read
___ A tiny piece of chalk in every coat
___ In every film the smallest lump in throat _____ song, _____ always song Wherever _____ a right there's always wrong

There's _____ a song but a broken bond
And an unkissed frog _____ village pond