

Nur's writing activity for a speaking task

> Write five or more sentences about a festival or special occasion in your culture.

Use correct punctuation. Use joining words (conjunctions) and, but, because.

Use 5 or more adjectives to make your writing interesting and more descriptive.

Eid-al-Fitr is a significant day in our life and after Ramadan we are waiting for Eid. All Muslims celebrate Eid. On Eid day I get up early in morning and I clean house and cook some delicious food like Biryani, cake or other dishes. All my family take a shower and they wear gorgeous dresses. Altogether we go to mosque for two rakat prayers and then we drive back home to serve food to family and friends.

On the day we meet each other and talk, laugh with friends and family. All elder people give money to young children. It is called salami and all children get lots of money and enjoy it. It is the happiest day in my life.

AND, BUT,
BECAUSE, SO

DON'T START SENTENCES WITH THESE.

New writing task. Use the past simple tense to write about this year's Eid celebration at your house. Also remember to choose some interesting adjectives to put in your sentences.