

This is what you wrote about how you usually celebrate Eid.

You used many adjectives to give your writing interesting description and you used correct verbs in the present simple tense. You also used the comparative "better". Remember to use the 3rd person singular of do negative = doesn't in the sentence: "my son don't like...".

Use correct punctuation. Use joining words (conjunctions) and, but, because.
Use 5 or more adjectives to make your writing interesting and more descriptive.

Feast of the sacrifice is the letter of the two islamic holidays celebrated world wide each year, Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha. I celebrate with my family an occasion together, to share its joys and to feel united. When we celebrate our festivals that time I cook some special food for my family. I love cooking and my family love to eat food.?

During Ramadan I always focus on becoming a better person. I feel happy in my kindness and help to others. I am giving Fitrana grains or money to the poor and by saying Eid prayers together. I buy new clothes for my family and some clothes very colourful I like it but my son don't like colourful dresses.

AND, BUT,
BECAUSE, SO
DON'T START
SENTENCES WITH THESE.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

During Eid al-Fitr we are going to picnic together. I don't like to go for picnic because I like to go for picnic summer time.? when the whether is beautiful.

Your next writing task is to write about this year's Eid celebration in the past simple tense. Use adjectives, paragraphs and check each sentence has a verb.

LIVEWORKSHEETS