

B. Read the comic strip. Choose the best last line for Mr Baxter to say. Then listen and check your answers.

- Somebody usually has an accident during a power cut.
- Someone please fix the lights before we have any more accidents!
- Do you really think we can work during a power cut?

Power Cut

Mr Baxter: Listen everyone. Sorry, but we have to stay a little longer tonight...

... Oh no, a power-cut!

OW!
MY HEAD!

AHHHH!
THAT'S HOT !!!!

LOOK OUT!

DON'T WORRY,
I'M COMING!

SOMEBODY GET
A TORCH... OUCH!

Jake: I'm so sorry, Mr Baxter. Here you are. Are you injured?
Mr Baxter: You knocked me over, Jake. Why were you running?

Jake: I was trying to help. I heard someone scream.
Linda: That was me.

Mr Baxter: What happened to you, Linda?
Linda: I was sitting at my desk. I wasn't doing anything. I was waiting for the lights to come back on. Suddenly, someone spilt boiling hot tea all over me. It burnt my face. That's why I screamed.

Ken: Sorry about that, Linda.
Mr Baxter: Ken? You're bleeding. What happened to you?
Ken: I was coming back from the cafeteria with some tea for my sore throat. I tripped over something and grazed my head on a desk.

Penny: So, that was you?

Ken: What do you mean, Penny? Where were you?

Penny: Well, I was carrying some boxes to my desk over there. Suddenly, I stepped on something, lost my balance and fell, and I think I've sprained my ankle. Then, I heard someone trip over the boxes.

Mr Baxter: I don't believe this. ?
