I think swimming is the (o) _____ relaxing sport there is. I took swimming lessons when I was a little child. I was (6) _____ than many of my classmates, but it was not a problem. Unfortunately, I did not continue, so I lost the hang of it. When friends ask me for some advice about sports for their children, I tell them that their children (7) _____ try all sorts of sports at a young age; it seems to be the best word of advice before they can decide on a specific discipline with rules and obligations. After a few years, I decided that karate was my sport. This time again, I was the (8) _____ in class. In addition, my trainer was the (9) _____ demanding person in the world. For example, he always made me train with kids who were (10) _____ than I for a couple of years. I (11) _____ emphasize that this training was really hard, but after all these years, I think my trainer was right all along. Now, I can see that his words were the (12) _____ advice any student can hope for. My karate lessons were probably the (13) _____ interesting experience in my life when I was younger.
