

Instruction: Use the information provided in the box to answer the following questions

census

overpopulated

Migration

Underpopulation

population

1. A _____ is the amount of people, animals or trees that are in a specific area.
2. _____ is when people or animals move from one place to another.
3. When a community or country has more people than resources we say that the community or country is _____.
4. A _____ is used to collect information on the population of a country.
5. _____ is when a community or country has a small amount of people but has a lot of resources.

Instruction: Write the names of the following nation builders

Health Care Workers, Garbage Collectors, Teacher, Athlete

