

IDIOMS QUIZ 25-30

to put someone on a pedestal	to turn someone on	to have a crush on someone
to dump someone	to turn someone down	to turn someone off

	Idiom	Meaning
1		To end a romantic relationship with someone.
2		To believe someone is perfect; to believe someone can do no wrong.
3		To have an infatuation with someone you don't know very well; to think about this person a lot.
4		To excite or interest someone in a romantic or sexual way.
5		To say no to someone; to tell someone you have no romantic interest in them.
6		To decrease someone's romantic interest; to cause someone to have no interest in you.

Complete the following sentences with the correct idioms.

to put someone on a pedestal	turned him on	have a crush on dumped her	turned him down	turn me off

7. I _____ John. I've liked him for a long time. I'm nervous, but think I'll tell him this Valentine's Day.

8. Michael thought Sally's dress was sexy. It really _____.

9. It's never a good idea _____. We're all human and nobody's perfect.

10. My sister is crying because her boyfriend _____. He told her last night that he's met a new girl and that he doesn't want to be with my sister anymore.

11. People who never listen to me or let me speak really _____.

12. Billy asked Becky on a date but she _____. She told him that he wasn't her type and that she had no interest in dating him.