

Human Body System diagram

Name:

Grade and group:

Date:

1. Match the column A with column B. Write the letter of the correct match on the blank. Use CAPITAL letter.

|                       |
|-----------------------|
| 1. Digestive system   |
| 2. Skeletal system    |
| 3. Respiratory system |
| 4. Circulatory system |
| 5. Nervous system     |
| 6. Muscular system    |
| 7. Urinary system     |

|                                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| A. Removes extra water and waste materials from our body .              |
| B. Allows us to move different parts of our body.                       |
| C. Protects the delicate organs in our body.                            |
| D. Takes air into and removes air out of body.                          |
| E. Breaks down food into substances our body can use.                   |
| F. Made up of parts that help move substances to all parts of our body. |
| G. The control center of our body.                                      |

2. Choose the correct answer.

- What is the passage by which food goes from mouth to stomach?
  - Mouth
  - Gullet
  - Large intestine
  - Small intestine
- What is the part of the digestive system that digests and absorbs food?
  - Mouth
  - Gullet
  - Large intestine
  - Small intestine
- Absorbs water from remaining indigestible food matter and passes useless waste material from the body.
  - Mouth
  - Gullet

- c. Large intestine
- d. Small intestine
- 4. Which is the part of the urinary system that removes waste products from the blood and secretes urine?
  - a. Kidney
  - b. Urethra
  - c. Ureters
  - d. Bladder
- 5. What is the duct/tube from kidney to bladder?
  - a. Kidney
  - b. Urethra
  - c. Ureters
  - d. Bladder.

Activity 2.

Using the information above, create a 10-question quiz. Share your questionnaire with a colleague and answer their questions.

Do not forget to send your evidence by private message.

