

Grammar

Pronouns

Pronouns replace nouns.

Subject pronouns are used as the subjects in sentences.

Object pronouns are used as the objects in sentences.

They often come after verbs.

I am Bikram.
Call me Vicky.

We are cousins.
Play with us.

He is my brother.
I love him very much.

She is my sister.
I gave her a ribbon.

You are my students.
I tell you stories.

They are our parents.
We love them.

It is a pencil.
Sharpen it, please.

They are our cows.
We give them grass.

You are my niece. I will give you a pen.

Complete the table.

Subject Pronoun	Object Pronoun
I
we you her he them
	it

Look and write he, she, it or they.

Choose and write.

- a. (I/ Me)  am Rita. Can you give (I/ me)  your pen?
- b. (He/ Him)  is my brother. I love (he/ him) .
- c. Look at (she/ her)  (She/ Her)  is my sister.
- d. Pick (them/ they)  up. (They/ Them)  are your books.
- e. (We/ Us)  are from Chitwan. Ask (us/ we)  about Chitwan.

Write the original words of the pronouns in pink.

- a. Ruby is my elder sister. She is pretty.
- b. My mother gave me a new book. It has nice pictures.
- c. My cousins are coming today. I have a surprise for them.
- d. My father likes Nepali hat. He wears it everyday.
- e. I love my grandma. I love her very much.

