A Letter Home

Dear Mom and Dad,

We're on our mid-morning break right now, so I thought I would write you a letter. Camp is pretty great! When I first got here, I wasn't having much fun. I couldn't sleep because of the strange noises outside our tent, and I have to / can take cold showers every day. But I'm starting to get used to camp life, even the chore rules. After every meal, we should / must clean up the tables and do the dishes. We also need to / have to clean our tents and camping site every day. We must / can be doing a good job, because the camp director has been really nice to us.

It's not just chores though, there's fun stuff, too. In the morning we should / must follow the camp schedule, but in the afternoon, we have free time and can / may do anything we want. We can / have to choose from a lot of different activities. Like this afternoon, I could play tag, do arts and crafts, or go hiking. It's pretty hot today, though, so I must / might go swimming in the lake. You might / should see the lake, by the way: it's just beautiful! I think I really should / must take more pictures, so I can / may show you when I get home.

Well, I need to / have to get going, it's almost time for lunch. Tell everyone back home hello for me! Oh, and would you send me some stamps? I could use some more, I'm almost out.

~Paige

A Letter to A Friend

Dear Belinda,

I am very annoyed right now! I am applying for a driver's licence, and I am very upset about all the things I have to / must do. First, I should / have to go to Motor Vehicle Department and pick up an application form. I can't / mustn't ask a friend to pick up the form or ask them to send me an e-mail. I need to / must go downtown and pick up the form in person. Then, I have to / should fill out the form. I can't / might not use a pencil; I should / must use a pen with black ink. I also need two photographs for the application. So, I can't / don't need to use the old ones. They should / might be new. Later, I have to / can submit my application. I also need an eye examination test. Finally, I should / must take a road test, it is obligatory. They even ask me to park the car on a crowded city street.

No wonder why I got angry! I can't believe all the things I have to do.

I hope everything is fine for you unlike me.

Take care.

~Jack
