Advantages of computer technologies

1. Saves time

2. Increase productivity

3. Increase the quality of products

- Tasks like drawing, writing documents, and editing media could take so much time without software tools.

- Since machines can work for days without a rest and complete the tasks faster.

- Machines are able to create identical products every time and get the same output each time.