

Match

There is a virus and children all around the world are at home.

Candy Fairy asks a question about e-safety to Zana.

Ella is at her home. She is sleeping. She is having a bad nightmare.

They are all happy because they are all together.

They are having classes online, so they can only see each other on screen.