Can you recall what happened in the story so far? Make a timeline of Mr. Fox's life. Read, drag, and drop the boxes to organize the story considering each event:

- Mr. Fox and his family are able to dig more quickly than the farmers, so they are safe for the moment.
- While in pain Mr. Fox is unable to sleep, so he hears the farmers trying to dig him out.
- Once the whole mountain has been dug out, the farmers decide to camp outside of the fox hole.
- The Fox children are tempted to climb out when they smell the farmers' food.
- Mr. Fox gets his children to help him dig by being suspenseful and acting like they can't do what he needs them to do.
- The three farmers shoot Mr. Fox's tail off.
- After three days, Mr. Fox comes up with a clever plan. It requires additional digging.
