

Words and Meaning
What Are Clouds?

Click on each word to hear it. Break the words into syllables. Listen & learn the meaning.

Word	Part of speech	Syllables	Meaning
Crystal	Noun	<input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/>	solid formation that follows a pattern as it shapes things such as salt, sugar
Droplet	Noun	<input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/>	a very small drop of liquid
Reflect	Verb	<input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/>	a surface or body that throws back light or heat
Cirrus	Noun	<input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/>	Types of clouds
Cumulus	Noun	<input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/>
Stratus	Noun	<input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/>
Sleet	Noun	<input type="text"/>	rain drops that freeze into ice pellets before reaching the ground
Hail	Noun	<input type="text"/>	balls of irregular lumps of ice that fall in showers
Satellite	Noun	<input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/>	a moon, planet or machine that orbits a planet or star
Ammonia	Noun	<input type="text"/> - <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/>	a colourless gas with a bad smell.

Write the correct word from above to complete each sentence.

1. Can you find the _____, _____ and _____ clouds in the sky.
2. A cloud is made of water drops or ice _____ floating in the sky.
3. Freezing rain, _____ or even _____ can fall from clouds.
4. At night, clouds _____ heat and keep the ground warmer.
5. Jupiter has clouds made of a gas called _____.
6. Most of the water in clouds is in very small _____.
7. NASA uses a _____ in space to study clouds.