

NAME:

COURSE:

DATE:

RELATIVE CLAUSES

1. Watch the following video and answer the questions below.

2. Write down the RELATIVE PRONOUN that refers to People: WHO, WHICH OR THAT?
3. Write down the RELATIVE PRONOUN that refers to THINGS: WHO, WHICH OR THAT?
4. Write down the RELATIVE PRONOUN that refers to PEOPLE AND THINGS: WHO, WHICH OR THAT?
5. Choose true or false:

Relative pronouns are used to:

- a) make sentences look nicer.
- b) join clauses.
- c) tell us more about people and things.

INSTRUCTION: Write down the relative pronoun that corresponds each description.

1. Economics is a subject _____ I've never understood.
2. I want a mobile phone _____ takes good photos.
3. I work in that big yellow building _____ you can see over there.

4. Lee Harvey Oswald is the man _____ shot John F Kennedy.
5. Meryl Streep is the famous person _____ I'd most like to meet.
6. What's the name of the lady _____ is wearing the blue dress?
7. You need a coat _____ will keep you warm this winter.
8. You're the most beautiful person _____ I've ever seen.

INSTRUCTION: Combine the two sentences with the corresponding RELATIVE PRONOUN (who, which, that).

I like cats. They are very funny

I like Martha. She runs fast.

Lions are fascinating. They live in Africa.

Carlos is an architect. He likes playing basketball.

Martina has an old book. It is about animals living in the jungle.