

Science Third Grade

The Universe and The Solar System

Exercise 1: Choose the correct word to label the following pictures: Earth Star Galaxy

Exercise 2: Choose the correct option to complete each sentence.

- The Sun, the moons, the stars and the _____ are all part of the Solar System.
 - galaxies
- Groups of stars are called _____.
 - Dwarfs
- The _____ is the most important star in the universe.
 - planets
- Red and yellow stars are called _____.
 - Giants
- Blue stars are called _____.
 - Sun
- There are _____ planets in the solar system.
 - Earth
- We live in planet _____.
 - eight

Exercise 3: Read the description, look at the pictures and choose the correct name for each planet.

The smallest planet next to the Sun.	Only planet known to have life on it.	The biggest planet.	It has distinctive rings around it.	The coldest planet.

The Moon and the Eclipses

Exercise 1: Choose the correct word to label the following pictures.

Exercise 2: Read the description and choose the correct type of eclipse.

When the Earth is between the Moon and the Sun	It seems like the Sun has gone dark	When the Moon is brown or red color.	When the Moon moves in front of the Sun.

The Earth Movements and Seasons

Exercise 1: Read and match the words with the correct description.

Summer

•

- The leaves turn brown or orange and start to fall off.

Fall

•

- The warmest season where you can go swimming.

Winter

•

- The flowers and trees start to grow again.

Spring

•

- The coldest season.