

Exercise on intensifiers:
So, Such, Too, Enough.
(2)

I. Read the statements carefully.

A) Identify the highlighted information whether they are adjectives, nouns, adverbs or adjective+noun.
B) Complete the statements with so, too, such, enough.

Example :

0. This shirt is too expensive. It costs $600 and I have only $300.
(noun - adj - adv)

1. I've been drinking water now I need to go to the bathroom frequently!

2. Algebra is a complicated subject for me. It can't understand anything.

3. My sister is 14 years old. She is not old to be out so late at night.

4. The policeman ran fast to catch the criminal.

5. Sorry kid, you're not old to buy alcohol, You're 15 and the minimum age is 18.

6. English is difficult for me, but fortunately, I can understand certain information.

7. I am tired today, but I can play several minutes more.

8. My brother is 15 years old, he wants to get his driver's license but he isn't old .

9. Today is a wonderful day. I love cloudy days.

10. The coffee is hot, it is impossible to drink it.