

1. Living in a society comes with having to accept certain things for the greater good.
2. Nonetheless, it is a known fact that...
3. We need different perspectives to be taken into consideration.
4. ... is considered to be one of the most essential and necessary rights we have nowadays
5. In today's world, it is incredibly easy to ...
6. It is rather foolish to even consider the possibility of +Ving
7. Lately, not only has this been a dangerous situation, but it has also led many people to voice their criticism against the system.
8. Despite all this,...
9. Having said that,...
10. Apart from the aforementioned,...
11. Because of that, we will never fully agree with some of the decisions our politicians make.
12. This is an issue that has caused lots of angry arguments.
13. Some wrong decisions could make our country go from bad to worse.

Ending sentences

14. That's why we must learn to speak our minds, free of fear and doubts.
15. If we want a real change, we should really think of all the advantages and drawbacks.
16. We need to understand the complexity of the human society.
17. I truly believe that, if we want to change the situation, we will have to change ourselves first.
18. Some serious measures should be implemented in order to get a better result; otherwise, we will perpetuate this unwanted situation.
19. I firmly believe we all have the tools to correct such an unfortunate state of affairs.