

Phrasal verbs

Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use the word given.

If the phrasal verb is separable, you must separate the particle from the verb

1 I don't think we can have that dinner party this weekend. Let's postpone it until next month. PUT

I don't think we can have that dinner party this weekend. Let's PUT until next month.

2 Either he wasn't hungry or he didn't like the food: he just ate tiny quantities of it. PICK

Either he wasn't hungry or he didn't like the food: he just PICK now and then.

3 If I feel hungry late in the evening, I have a slice of crispbread. It contains lots of fibre, so it makes me feel full very effectively. FILL

If I feel hungry late in the evening, I have a slice of crispbread. It contains lots of fibre, so it very effectively.

4 I like sweet foods too much; I've got to reduce my consumption of them if I want to stay slim. BACK

I like sweet foods too much; I've got to BACK if I want to stay slim.

5 You should eat your food slowly. It's unhealthy to swallow it rapidly in huge bites like that. WOLF

You should eat your food slowly. It's unhealthy to WOLF like that.

6 It's our big night out. If you feel like having the octopus, you should have it, never mind the price. GO

It's our big night out. If you feel like having the octopus, you should GO, never mind the price.

7 Salty snacks are really not good for you; I've decided to stop eating them altogether. UP

Salty snacks are really not good for you; I've decided to UP altogether.

8 We want to spend two weeks in our holiday home without going to town; we're going to need a lot of rice, pasta and olive oil so we must prepare stores of them now. STOCK

We want to spend two weeks in our holiday home without going to town; we're going to need a lot of rice, pasta and olive oil so we must STOCK now.