

Unit 8 Grammar Review

Modal Verbs of deduction

a) Complete the sentences with must, might or can't.

1. My sister didn't go to bed until after 1:00 last night. She  be very tired today.
2. Who's that at the door? I don't know, but it  be Helen. She said she would come over tonight.
3. Whose is this camera? Well, it  be Dan's. He doesn't have a camera.
4. Tom isn't at school today, and he never misses school. He  be sick.
5. Whose is that red sweater? I don't know, but it  be Emma's. She never wears anything red.
6. I don't know where my bag is. It  be under my bed, or maybe it's in my closet.

The Past Simple Passive Voice

b) Complete the sentences with the past simple passive voice of the verbs in parentheses.

7. My taxi  (delay) by bad weather.

8. John and his brother Arthur  (invite) to my party.
9. The Pyramids of Teotihuacan  (build) around 100 BCE.
10. The poem  (write) by Shakespeare.
11. Primary sources like jewelry, paintings, maps, or written documents  (discover) by archeologists.

Relative Clauses

- c) Complete the sentences using the correct relative clause (When, why, where, that, which, or who).

12. Paleontologists are like detectives  examine the evidence that extinct animals left.
13. Dinosaurs are a group of reptiles  have lived on Earth long time ago.
14. Dinosaurs were creatures of fantastic appearance and often enormous size. That's  people developed wonderful stories about them.
15. North America was the place  many dinosaurs were discovered.
16.  Chinese people saw dinosaur bones for the first time, they thought they were dragon bones.

17. Everything we know about dinosaurs is based on fossils,  include bones, footprints, eggs, and skin impressions.

Non-defining relative clauses

d) Complete the sentences with who or which.

18. Leonardo da Vinci was a famous artist,  was born in Italy in 1452.

19. We might visit the Eiffel Tower,  is one of my favorite monuments.

20. My father was born in Scotland,  is part of the United Kingdom.

Wonderful job! (● '◡' ●)