

SCIENCE QUIZ
NERVOUS SYSTEM AND SENSES
5°

1. Match each term with its definition.

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| a. NERVOUS SYSTEM | • It is the director of your body which controls everything you do. |
| b. NEURON | • It controls the movement of your muscles and give you balance. |
| c. SPINAL CORD | • It is something that causes a response. |
| d. BRAINSTEM | • It is a network of cells, tissues, and organs that controls thoughts, movements, and simpler life processes. |
| e. CEREBRUM | • It connects the brain to the nerves that are found throughout the body. |
| f. CEREBELLUM | • They are specialized cells of the nervous system in charge of transmitting messages. |
| g. BRAIN | • It is in charge of important functions in our body as the heart beating and lungs breathing. |
| h. STIMULUS | • It is the largest part of the brain. It is divided into sections called lobes |

2. Identify the different parts of the brain

Cerebrum

Temporal lobe

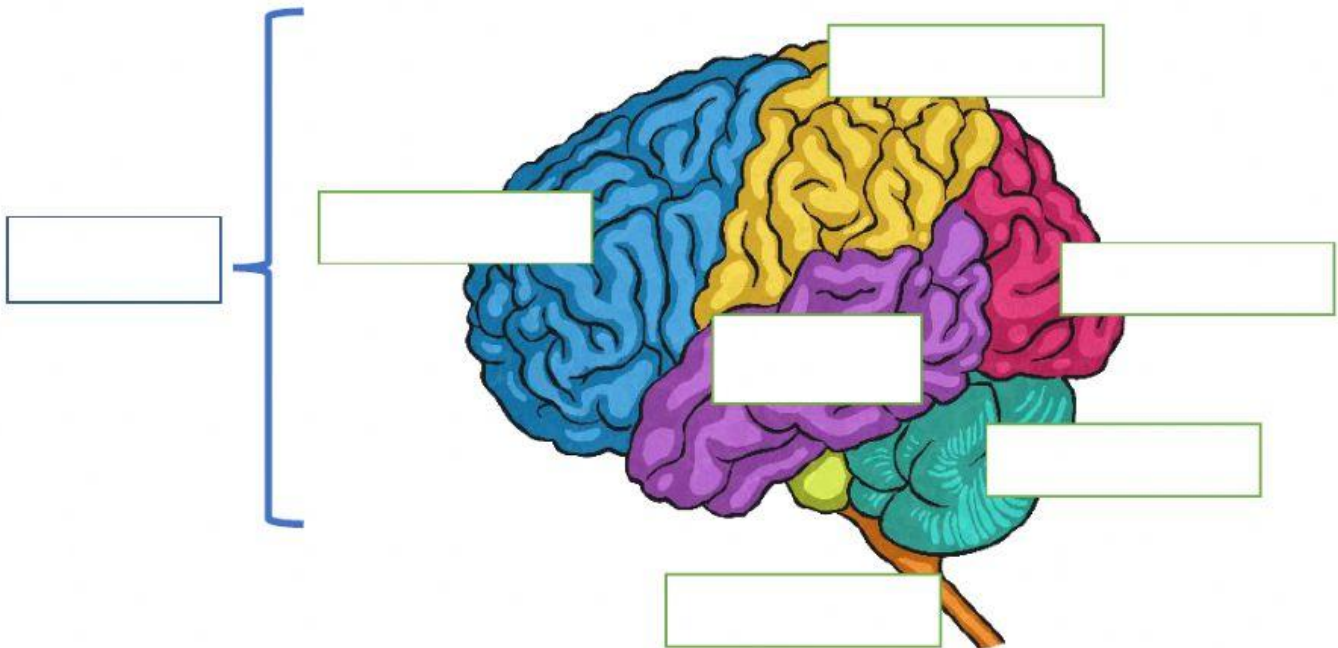

Cerebellum

Brainstem

Frontal lobe

Occipital lobe

Parietal lobe

3. Observe and identify which part of the brain is in charge of the function

