

Unit 9 Lesson 7 and 8 Quiz

Directions: Type the abbreviation for each word. These must be typed correctly to earn full credit.
Remember the rules I taught you. ☺

1. October
2. Avenue
3. Apartment
4. Mister
5. Pennsylvania
6. Senior
7. Street
8. Post Office
9. Company
10. Friday

Directions: Look at each title. If the title gets italicized when typed, choose italics. If it doesn't, choose no italics.
**Works that gets italicized are underlined when hand written. (We learned this. ☺)

11. The New York Times (newspaper)

(italics, no italics)

12. The Road Not Taken (poem)

(italics, no italics)

13. Old Town Road (song)

(italics, no italics)

14. Green Eggs and Ham (book)

(italics, no italics)

15. The Wizard of Oz (movie)

(italics, no italics)

16. The Largest Stadiums in the World (article)

(italics, no italics)

17. All of the News (magazine)

(italics, no italics)

18. A New Age Begins (book chapter)

(italics, no italics)

19. A Wrinkle in Time (novel)

(italics, no italics)

20. The Monkey's Tail (short story)

(italics, no italics)

Directions: Part Two: Choice the correct choice for each question.

21. Circle the title that shows italics.

a. Because of Winn Dixie      b. Mary Poppins

22. In which sentence is the title indicated correctly?

a. Susan read the poem The Road Not Taken to the class.
b. The Giving Tree is a classic children's novel.
c. The Wheels on the Bus is a famous children's song.

Scroll down for 23-25

23. Which title should have quotation marks?

- a. We read the poem Being Brave at Night by Edgar Guest in our reading class.
- b. National Geographic Kids magazine makes science concepts meaningful to students.
- c. Charlotte's Web is described by many children as "the best book ever."

24. Which sentence shows the correct use of italics?

- a. The article Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle teaches the importance of saving our environment.
- b. We read the chapter Land and Regions to complete our report in Social Studies.
- c. Where the Wild Things Are by Marcie Sendak is a winning children's picture book.

25. In which sentences is the title indicated correctly?

- a. The short story One Hen is about one boy with one big dream.
- b. We sang Happy Birthday at my grandmother's 80th birthday party.
- c. Jennifer read the poem "Where the Sidewalk Ends" by Shel Silverstein.