

3. How do the rest of the ants take care of the queen?

This image shows a handwriting practice sheet. It contains four identical sets of horizontal lines, each set consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. These lines are designed to help children learn the correct height and placement of letters. The first set is at the top, followed by a gap, then the second set, another gap, the third set, a third gap, and finally the fourth set at the bottom. The dashed middle line is intended for tracing the upper part of letters.
