

SECOND AND THIRD CONDITIONALS

Match the parts of the second conditional sentences.

1. If I became a surgeon, E	A. if he were a lot taller.
2. Eddie would play basketball _	B. I might learn Chinese.
3. I wouldn't go camping _	C. unless I was sure it wasn't going to rain.
4. If I had more time to revise, _	D. I wouldn't have to worry about my exams.
5. If it wasn't such a difficult language, _	E. I could help people who are sick.
6. I might go to the gym _	F. if I weren't so tired.

Complete the third conditional sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

1. If I hadn't been (not be) afraid of heights, I would have learned (learn) how to fly a small plane.
2. Unless I _____ (leave) at eight o'clock, I _____ (not arrive) on time.
3. If you _____ (not undergo) surgery, you _____ (might / not recover)
4. If my friends _____ (be) there, I _____ (not want) to leave.
5. If you _____ (be) there, you _____ (can / talk) to her.
6. We _____ (may / see) each other unless you _____ (leave).

Complete the sentences with the verbs below.

could do hadn't had might have gone would invite would learn wouldn't invite

1. If I wasn't afraid of heights, I would learn how to fly a small plane.
2. Rachel, if you were free, I _____ you.
3. If Sam _____ cosmetic surgery, he would have felt uncomfortable about his ears.
4. Jane _____ Ben unless she was sure she liked him.
5. If it had been sunny, I _____ cycling.
6. If I had my wallet, I _____ the shopping.