

Dan and Mark are talking about Dan's last summer holidays. Complete the conversation.

Mark: Hey Dan. What [] you do last summer?

Dan: I went to Rome with my girlfriend?

Mark: Really. How long [] [] stay there?

Dan: For a couple of weeks.

Mark: [] you have a good time?

Dan: Yeah, I []. It [] great, actually.

Mark: What [] the weather like?

Dan: It [] sunny and warm for the most part.

Mark: And what [] you do there?

Dan: We walked around, and took hundreds of photos.

Mark: [] you at the Colosseum?

Dan: Of course, it [] an amazing experience.

Mark: [] [] visit any other places in Italy?

Dan: Actually, we went to Florence for a couple of days.

[] It [] really cool. Trixie loved it.

Mark: [] [] get any souvenirs?

Dan: Just a couple of T-shirts for my little nephews.

Casey and Jenna are talking about Jenna's weekend. Complete the questions with the verbs in parentheses. Write only one word in each blank.

Casey: So, how [] your weekend? (be)

Jenna: It was great.

Casey: What [] [] []? (do)

Jenna: Jake and I went to the countryside.

Casey: But you don't like the country. Why [] [] [] there? (go)

Jenna: Because Jake and I needed some time alone.

Casey: That's cool. Where [] [] []?
(stay)

Jenna: We rented a cabin by the lake.

Casey: [] [] [] sailing? (go)

Jenna: No, the weather wasn't so nice.

Casey: That's a pity. What [] [] like? (be)

Jenna: It was cold, and it rained on Saturday night.

Casey: And how [] [] [] your time? (spend)

Jenna: We went for walks and we relaxed in the evening.

Casey: [] [] [] wine in front of a fire? (drink)

Jenna: Actually, we did. It was very romantic.

Casey: How long [] [] [] there?
(stay)

Jenna: For a couple of days. We got back on Monday morning.

