

Matter

1. Complete this sentences.

A. Everything on the planet is made up of _____.

B. Different _____ like wood, plastic and metals are used to make things.

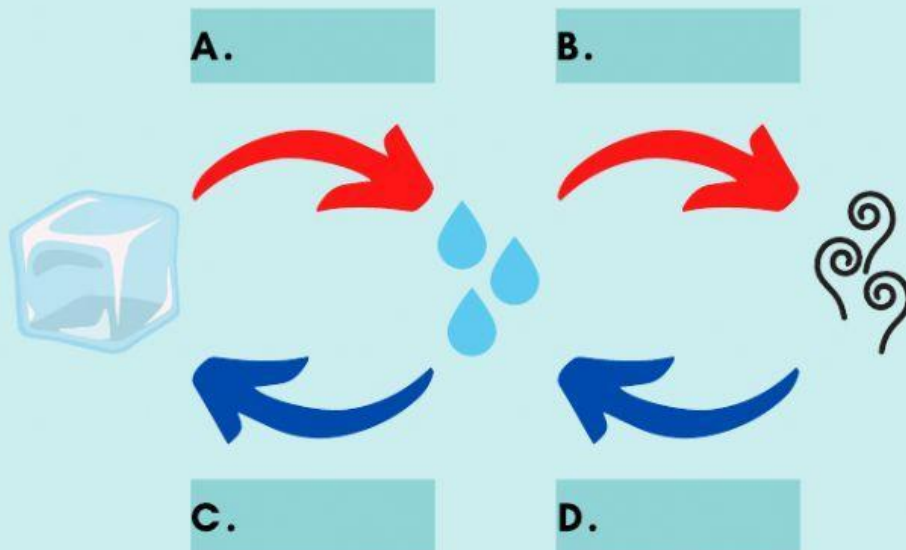

2. What are the three states of matter?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

3. Changes in matter.

4. Match to make a true sentence.

A. A fragile material

B. A flexible material

C. A rigid material

D. A resistant material

E. A transparent material

1. we can see through it.

2. is difficult to break.

3. breaks easily.

4. can change shape easily.

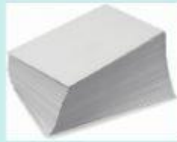

5. does not change shape easily.

Matter

5. Complete these sentences with changes of state.

- A. A solid changes to liquid.
- B. A liquid changes to a gas.
- C. A liquid changes to a solid.
- D. A gas changes to a liquid.

6. What properties do these objects have?

7. Write true (T) or false (F).

- A mixture is something that contains two or more different types of matter. ☐
- Light energy allows you to see objects. ☐
- Things that are in motion produce electrical energy. ☐
- Things that make noise produce sound energy. ☐
- Metal and water are electrical conductors. ☐
- Wood and plastic are electrical conductors. ☐
- Filtering is good for separating a solid that is dissolved in a liquid. ☐