Adjective or adverb

Dialogue 1:

Mum : Karen, did you do your exercises _____ (careful)?

Karen: Of course, Mum. You know I always do my exercises _____ (nice).
Can I _____ (quick) phone Sandra and ask her about the party? She is not _____ (happy) because Peter won't come to her party.

Mum: Okay, but don't talk for ages. And don't forget to talk _____ (quiet) because Fred is still sleeping.

Dialogue 2:

Father: Ron is a very _____ (polite) boy. Today when I met him, he greeted me very _____ (polite).

Peter: Yes, I must admit, Ron is very _____ (polite) when he meets grown-ups. But he is not _____ (polite) to his sisters. He treats them _____ (bad) and often shouts at them _____ (angry).

Father: Oh, I see, but how do his sisters treat him? Are they _____ (nice)?

Dialogue 3:

Dr. Long: What's wrong with you?

Matthew: I've got an _____(awful) headache and my arms and legs hurt _____(terrible).

Dr. Long: Open your mouth _____(wide)! Has he got a temperature, Mrs. White?

Mrs White: Oh, yes. His temperature was quite _____ (high) ten minutes ago.

Dr. Long: I think it's _____(normal). Let's take it again. **********
You haven't got a temperature now, Matthew. I think you can go to school.

More exercises:

Yesterday I went to a _____(nice) party.

A lot of _____ (friendly) boys and girls were there.

The music was _____ (loud) and we danced _____ (wild).

The time went by _____ (fast) and it was very _____ (late).

Robert's mother baked a _____ (good) cake.

We also played some _____ (exciting) games and I won _____ (easy).

LIVEWORKSHEETS

I met a _____ (pretty) girl, her name is Yvonne.

Her smile is _____ (lovely).

I spoke to her _____ (happy) and we had a lot of fun.

She is very _____ (beautiful).

She is from France, but she speaks English _____ (good).

I was very _____ (sad) when the party was over. I ran home _____ (fast) because I was already _____ (late).

At home I opened the door _____ (quiet) and went to bed _____ (quick).

I didn't sleep _____ (good), I always had to think of the _____ (pretty) girl.

1. Did you make this _____ (good) cake, it tastes _____ (excellent).
2. Everybody at the _____ (boring) concert was _____ (good) dressed.
3. Please, drive _____ (careful), the road is _____ (dangerous) and _____ (narrow).
4. I met Brian _____ (late -neulich), he looked _____ (sad).
5. The door was _____ (wide) open and I heard a _____ (terrible) noise.
6. Listen _____ (careful), you must not go to this _____ (terrible) expensive hotel.
7. I feel _____ (tired), I want to go to bed _____ (quick).
8. The film was _____ (high -höchst) interesting and we were _____ (terrible) sorry we couldn't get any tickets.
9. I'm afraid I cannot give you the _____ (correct) answer.
10. Speak to her _____ (nice) because she is _____ (sad).
11. She didn't sleep_____ (good), she was so _____ (excited). They_____ (near – beinahe) missed the _____ (good) film.

1. The work was not _____ (easy). Afterwards he felt so _____ (tired).
2. Most of the boys found the way _____ (easy) and looked _____ (proud).
3. Mmmh! Dinner is ready. It smells _____ (delicious).
4. The bus arrived _____ (late). Therefore, the passengers looked at the bus driver _____ (angry).

LIVEWORKSHEETS