

LOVE in the AIR

For many people, the flight to Australia is long and (1) boring (bore). But it wasn't for Abbie and Leo Davies – because that's where they first met.

'Abbie was sitting next to me,' said Leo. 'I felt (2) (relax) talking to her and we got on really well. We chatted all the way to Sydney and it was (3) (surprise) how quickly the time went.'

But they forgot to get each other's phone number, so after the flight Leo contacted the airline. 'To be honest, it was a bit (4) (embarrass) because the staff were quite (5) (amuse) by the situation, but anyway I gave them her seat number, and waited.'

Abbie, too, was feeling sad.

'I was (6) (annoy) with myself for not getting his number,' she said, 'though I was also a bit (7) (disappoint) he didn't ask me for mine. I thought he wasn't really (8) (interest) in seeing me again. So I was (9) (amaze) when the airline phoned to ask if I wanted to call Leo. I was so (10) (excite) that I phoned him that evening, and soon we had our first date. Now we're married and we're very happy together.'
