

Describe a Friend

Read the adjectives in the box and decide whether the word has a positive or negative meaning. Complete the definitions with the adjectives.

dependable	encouraging	generous	jealous	kind-hearted	mean
pleasant	selfish	loyal	creative	calm	ambitious	sensitive

1. She is always very _____ and relaxed, even when everyone else is stressing about things.
2. He's very _____. I mean, he gets upset very easily and he takes things very personally.
3. She's very _____. I mean, she draws, she paints, she plays the guitar.
4. He's a great friend to have. He's very _____ - always there for you when you need him.
5. He's _____, he always thinks of himself first.
6. She is really _____. I mean, she always tries to give me the confidence to succeed.
7. He's highly _____. He wants to be successful and he really works a lot.
8. She's _____. I mean, she is unhappy if I have something she likes.
9. He's _____ because he doesn't like sharing things or giving anything away.
10. She is _____ - always friendly and well-behaved.
11. He's _____. I mean, he happily gives me whatever I want.
12. She is _____. She cares about me and wants to help me in difficult situations.
13. He is a _____ person. I mean, he always does what you need him to.

